

Hello, I am Dawei the Teddy Bear.

I live in Beijing and I am visiting Brisbane for a little while. Thank you for looking after me for the week!

Could you please help me get dressed in the morning, and get undressed at night?

I can only speak Chinese, so if you could please speak Chinese to me while you help me get dressed and undressed it will make me feel welcome!

Don't forget to bring me back to Chinese class next Wednesday so that I can go home with another student!

I would like to take a diary back to China with me, so if you could draw a picture (or take a picture) of me with you at your house helping me get dressed that would be great! There is a bag of sentences attached to my diary, you can use them to stick a sentence in my book to go with your picture. Choose a sentence and stick it next to your picture and draw an arrow to the correct item of clothing in your picture.

谢谢，大为。xièxie, Dàwei (Thanks, David)
